CORCORAN (Frankfort) — Dale D. Corcoran, age 77, died Friday, October 15, 2004, at Paul Oliver Memorial Hospital. He was born on December 15, 1926, in Grand Rapids, MN, the son of Bernard and Mabel (Peterson) Corcoran. Dale married Barbara J. Harrison on August 8, 1947. He was a former Grand Rapids resident from 1955-1976. Dale served in the U.S. Army as a second lieutenant during World War II and the Korean War. He was a member of the Frankfort Masonic Lodge and O.E.S., Shriners, American Legion, Lions Club, and he was a proud member of the Democratic Party. Dale was the former owner of Thrifty Foods from 1970-82. Five daughters survive him, Colleen Corcoran (fiancee, Andrew Kroll) of Grand Rapids, MI, Christine (Randall) Olsen of Frankfort, Denise (Frederick) Schubert of New Bern, N.C., Jennifer (Marty) Ferguson of Duluth, MN, and Angela (Tim) Cavric of Interlochen. He is also survived by his grandchildren, Ryan Johnson, Brienne Olsen, Dillon Olsen, Blake Johnson, Forrest Ferguson, Brady Olsen, Eanne Ferguson, Austin Ferguson, Chase Cavric and Holden Cavric; and a sister, Patricia Kearney. His wife, Barbara, preceded Dale in death on November 9, 2002. A memorial service has taken place Tuesday at the Benzonia Chapel of McElduff Funeral Homes, with Rev. Tim Boal officiating. Memorials may be directed to the American Diabetes Association. The Benzonia Chapel of McElduff Funeral Homes and Cremation Service is handling the arrangements.
